GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
CURES ALL HUMORS,
from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goiters, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections.
"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,
which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

SELECT READING.

Present Condition of Ungraded Schools.

The following article in relation to the ungraded schools of Nebraska appeared in the Nebraska Signal published at Fairmount, Fillmore county, Nebraska. It may prove of interest to our numerous readers.

"When we consider that the rural schools of our county provide elementary instruction for more than one half of our school population and all the formal education that the majority of this half ever receive, and further, the diversity of condition represented in this population, it seems strange that a people so fertile in expedients as our own should have adhered so closely as they have done to one type of rural school. The type is familiar to us all. A school composed of both sexes, ranging in study anywhere from the primer to the languages, housed in a school house of but one room and provided with one teacher, upon whom devolves all discipline and instruction. Possibly the teacher changes every term; probably no systematic record of studies, classes, or progress is kept, and each teacher takes up the work as if nothing had gone before and ends it as if nothing were to follow. One reason of this is, that in many school districts the teacher finds as many varieties of text books as he has pupils, and the question that confronts him is what to do with them.

The difficulties arising, in many of our schools, from a variety of text books upon the same subject, will probably remain as long as copyrights and a free press is in existence, unless the State assumes the burden of publication and supplies them at a nominal cost to the consumer. While this might add a few cents to a man's tax, it would materially lessen his bill at a book store.

The teacher may be a person of excellent education, wise, conscientious, firm, loving and versatile; but a school may be favored in this respect one term and the next pass into the charge of a callow youth, a crude girl, or a man or a woman of inferior mind unsympathetic nature, who, for a consideration, makes "confusion worse confounded" in juvenile intellects. Of supervision there is little, of inspection less, and of standards of scholarships and tests of work none but those the teacher has wit enough to supply.

Since the school board have the power to say what books shall be used, to provide a course of study, to classify and grade the school, and contract with the teacher, much responsibility rests upon them. The school board are the educational representatives of the patrons of our schools and have the power to make the schools much more effective; but if they, as such representatives, remain inactive and allow the teacher to continue under so many disadvantages, there will continue to be much unsatisfactory results for which they are, in a great measure, responsible.

Such is the rural school as it exists among us to-day. Some of the best minds of the country have been fostered by this instrumentality, some of the noblest powers aroused and the highest aspirations kindled, but it is impossible that a high average of results should be attained under the present circumstances. If this be evident upon the survey of the shools themselves, how much more urgent appears the demand for their better organization and more efficient conduct when we turn our attention to what is going on in other communities. When we consider, for instance, that in England rural schools are subjected to an inspection as thorough as that which is applied to the city schools; that in Belgium every country boy is trained in drawing, in the use of weights and measures, and surgeons instruments; that in Germany and Switzerland only well qualified teachers are employed even in the most obscure districts.

Whenever the education of the masses is attempted, the problem chiefly discussed is how to secure competent teachers. It is indeed no longer insisted that a competent teacher is the sole requisite to a good school. The best teacher, it is allowed, cannot overcome the effects of bad air in the school room, unsightly premises, apathy and selfishness in the community, and ignorance and obstinacy in superior officers. Experience, however, indicates that all external conditions of efficiency are more easily secured when once their nature is understood, than well qualified teachers."

The President's Residence.

HE DOES NOT INTEND TO ABANDON HIS CITIZENSHIP OF NEW YORK.

It is said at the White House that the story from Buffalo, alleging that the President has given up his residence in that city, is not true. As published, Mr. Cleveland is still a property owner and taxpayer in Buffalo. His temporary residence in Washington does not hurt his citizenship in New York at all. So long as he does not vote somewhere else, he has the right to renew his privileges in Buffalo whenever he returns to the city. When there was suffrage in the District of Columbia a number of residents from the States forfeited their citizenship elsewhere by voting there.

It has not been customary for the President to go home to vote. Up to the end of General Grant's second term he had never voted for a President but once, and that was for Mr. Buchanan, in 1858, at a place, too, where he had, as he said, no right to cast his vote. He had been into St. Louis, was returning home and stopped just outside the city at a polling precinct. He was asked if he had a vote, and when he said he was not likely to reach home in time to vote there he availed himself of the privilege of voting where he did for the Buchanan and Breckenridge electors. President Cleveland will not again, probably exercise the franchise during his term as President. He certainly does not intend, however, to abandon his citizenship in New York to become a citizen of the District of Columbia.

Bicycling begins to take rank with base ball as a destroyer of personal beauty. It is even becoming an object of interest to the life insurance companies.

It is easy enough to tickle a man's vanity when you find out where it is.

Tricks to Sell Mines and Deceive the Purchasers—Card Playing and Digging

It is not strange that there is gambling in these "camps," for to most of those engaged in it mining is simply gambling. Many a man tells me, "I have put into the ground every dollar I could save, but I never made a dollar from it yet. My turn will come some day." It seems no worse to them to risk everything on the throw of a card than on the thrust of a spade. By night they repeat in the saloons their occupation by day in the mines. Gamblers in cards claim that these speculators might as well lose their money to them as to other gamblers in stocks. It is hazard everywhere, and the air is impregnated with speculation as with ozone. Only for the few who have the capital to purchase all knowledge, to compass all risks, to furnish all machinery, and endure all delays, can it become a legitimate business. Such ones may possibly, be as safe in this mining business as in any other.

Yet the keenest may be imposed on. An old California miner told me of an expert assayer, who had avoided every snare. He had the habit of taking into the mine he was to test, bags in which he carefully deposited the specimens he found, tying, labeling and sealing them, then carrying them in the cars to his own home. His reports gained implicit belief, hence the greater desire to deceive him. A man once followed him to the train with $50, and bribed the porter of the sleeping car, into whose charge the bags had been committed, to leave them with him for half an hour. He then, by means of fine metallic syringes injected into the bags certain solutions, chlorides, I think, of gold and silver, and returned them unopened to the porter's custody. The assayer, unsuspicious, tested every sample in bulk to find the amount of silver and gold, and made a very sanguine report. On the strength of this the mine was bought of those whose agent the injector was, and placed under charge of the assayer. As soon as work was begun the latter found, with horror, that he had been imposed on. For weeks, as my informant told me, he drove on, with his hair standing on end, determined to strike some new lead, which should justify his report. At length, much lower down, he "made a find," which exceeded his first claim, and then he was satisfied.

The gamblers, like the miners, are not unfrequently of college education from fine Eastern families. They are not wholly bad. Their plans have miscarried, their capital is gone and they are cast on their wits for a living. Other men have preyed on them, they turn and prey on other men. But my friend, who is pastor of the little church around the corner, tells me that for the last two years he has had from two to twelve gamblers at his Sunday evening lectures.

"Why don't you come to us some time to help pay your salary?" said one of them to him. "I never ask any one to help pay my salary; that is a purely voluntary matter."

A few days later it was found that the little church needed repairs. "We want new paper and fixtures," he said to the gambler. "What can you do for us?" "Draw up a paper and leave it with me." In a short time the paper was returned, with $225 pledged by the gamblers and $25 added by a Jew. When all had been paid in and the improvements were made the contributors turned out to see their work. They may have builded better than they knew.—Salem (Mass.) Gazette.

Benedict and the Contractors.

The Pittsburg Dispatch says that Mr. Benedict, the new Public Printer, has already got into a row with some of the paper contractors. Heretofore whenever they had bad paper rejected, they would go to Washington, obtain a hearing, use all their influence in various ways, and often end in getting their paper through, when it obviously did not come up to the requirements. Mr. Benedict is determined to put a stop to this. Recently, according to the Dispatch, several hundred reams of book paper were passed by the office board, but attention was called to the fact that it was not up to the grade. An allowance of three points is made for varying thickness or weight and this particular batch ran about nine points. The Public Printer made a personal examination and rejected the whole. He ordered it immediately shipped back to the contractors, and ordered a fresh lot elsewhere.

The contractors were notified of the rejection. In accordance with their custom one of them immediately came to town and called on Mr. Benedict. He said he was sorry the paper was not up to the required grade, but the fact was they had had some trouble with their boilers, and the paper had run unusually uneven. Mr. Benedict said he thought it had, but he had not time to talk about it now. The contractor blankly inquired if he could not be allowed to pick out what would pass and average things up. Mr. Benedict said he had held court on that paper yesterday and had decided the case and ordered the paper returned.

"Why, you have not sent it back?" exclaimed the astonished.

"I ordered it shipped back. If it has not gone I'll discharge the man whose business it was to do it," and he pressed a button. A clerk appeared.

"Mr. Munson, was that paper shipped back, as ordered?"

"It went last night," replied the clerk.

"Good morning, sir," said Mr. Benedict. "Your most direct way out is through that door. When your paper does not come up to the contract it will be rejected, and when it is rejected you need not bother about coming down to Washington. It stays rejected."

This is refreshing, even if it is vigorous. It certainly is about time that a decided stand was taken against the men who impose upon, or rather defraud the Government in their contracts. In this respect, at least, Mr. Benedict begins well.

A Business Revival in Erin's Isle.

By Cable to the New York World.

Very encouraging information is coming in from Ireland. There has been an unexpected subsidence of disturbances and there are many evidences that the people are devoting themselves more to the ordinary business pursuits of life than they have been doing for many years. Many purchases of land are being made under the Ashbourne act and there is an increase of a peaceable and conciliatory feeling on the part of the landlords towards tenants. Another good sign is that the country fairs held this fall have been better attended than for a long time and the exhibits more numerous and of a better character than usual. There is an abundance of farm produce and fair prices are received for large quantities of cattle and sheep sent to English markets. Strange as it may appear, there is a genuine business revival in Ireland and this is to be helped along by the government, which is working very hard on the question of supplying the Irish people with the means of more general employment.

How Ants Live.

THEIR LOVE OF CLEANLINESS AND THEIR MODES OF BURIAL.

In spite of the multifarious duties and tasks that are imposed on those tiny burghers, they still find time to clean and adorn their worthy little persons, says a writer in the Cosmopolitan for October. No spot, no atom of dust or anything else uncleanly will tolerate on their bodies. They get rid of the dirt with the brushy tufts on their feet or with their tongues. They act, for all the world, like domestic cats when they clean and lick themselves; and they assist one another at the toilet precisely like monkeys. Their sense of cleanliness goes so far that the naturalist often finds, to his unpleasant surprise, the colored marks that he had applied with so much care on his "trial ants" removed by their dirt-hating friends. They keep their dwellings just as cleanly.

But the conveying away of their deceased brethren, whose dead bodies they appear to regard with the greatest antipathy, gives them more trouble than anything else. When some members of an ant community, which Mr. Cook kept imprisoned, died and could not be removed, those remaining seemed affected with the greatest horror. For days the insects ran about seeking a way out, and ceased only when completely exhausted. The ants belonging to the camponotus species seized the dead and threw them into a water pail, which they converted into a sepulchre. Ordinarily, though, the ants are said to treat their dead with more reverence. They

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1886.

Speaker Carlisle's seat in congress will be contested.

The Republicans carried Pennsylvania, but the Democrats won in a majority of the states.

Col. Quay has announced his candidacy for United States Senatorship. He was suspected of this long ago, but he kept quiet until after the election. The state having been carried by the Machine Ring, Quay will no doubt be elected. Galusha A. Grow also wants to be Senator, and J. A. Scranton would like to be taken care of since his defeat for Congress. Quay will cook their goose for them in the first round. The G. O. P. are great admirers of his Pardon Board record.

Good for Wisconsin.

Gov. Rusk, republican candidate in Wisconsin has a plurality less than 14,000. This is bitter information for the Republicans, who have claimed not less than 25,000 and from that up to 30,000. Taking the figures as correct the Republican loss as compared with the vote of two years ago is fully 6,000.

CONGRESSIONAL RETURNS.

The Return Judges appointed by the several courts of common pleas of the several counties and parts of counties embraced in the Eleventh congressional district met at Mauch Chunk on November 9. They return that the entire vote in the district was 19,358, of which Hon. C. R. Buckalew received 18,337. The combined vote for other candidates was 1,021, making Mr. Buckalew's majority 17,316. The return judge for Columbia county was J. B. Robins Esq. of Catawissa.

SENATORIAL RETURNS.

The Return Judges of the 24th Senatorial district met at Danville on Tuesday afternoon. The vote of the district was as follows:

Lewis R. 8,894		Metzger D. 12,440
Noble,	413
Gerard,	131
	9,438	9,438
Metzger's majority		3,002

F. P. Billmeyer Esq. was the return judge for Columbia county.

FACT AGAINST FICTION.

We give below several statements from last week's Republican, in contrast with actual results at the late election:

Republican: —The latest returns assure a probable Republican gain of two Congressmen for Pennsylvania.

The Fact:—There is no Republican gain on Congressmen from Pennsylvania. Politically, the delegation stands exactly as before.

Republican: — The latest returns would seem to indicate that the Democratic majority in Congress has been wiped out, giving the Republicans a working majority.

The Fact:—There will be a Democratic "working" majority in the new Congress of twenty-five.

Republican:—We have, undoubtedly, maintained our control of all the Legislatures of the States that choose U. S. Senators, now Republican, and probably Indiana.

The Fact:—The Republicans have lost control of the Legislatures of New Jersey and California, and have not carried Indiana. In each of these States, Democratic Senators will be elected to succeed Republicans.

Republican: — The Republicans claim to have gained control of New Jersey, by the election of Capt. Howey, (Rep.,) for Governor.

The Fact:—Green, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, is elected by a majority of over seven thousand.

Republican:—A most notable rebuke for Cleveland has been the defeat of his lieutenant, Scott, Congressman from the Erie district of this State.

The Fact:—William L. Scott, democrat, is reelected from the Republican Erie district, by a majority of 1500, or double his former majority in the district.

It is tolerably plain that in prognosticating and reporting election results, our neighbor of the Republican is not an eminent success.

THEY WILL GET WHAT THEY WANT.

When Gov. Pattison was inaugurated, the expense to the State was nominal. When he took his seat as the chief executive of this commonwealth, the legislature consisted of three houses, the third one, the lobby, being the most powerful of the three. During his administration the corrupt lobby has disappeared, there has been no Pardon Board scandal, there has been no bribing of the legislature and no Democratic Kemble has been convicted of such a crime. The state has had a clean administration, on an economical basis. Every possible effort has been made to enforce the provisions of the constitution but without avail owing to Republican opposition. The constitution demands an apportionment of the state every ten years, but a republican senate refused to permit this to be done in 1884. The same instrument prohibits discrimination by corporations, but for twelve years republican administrations have neglected to comply with its plain mandates. The result of the recent election seems to indicate that honesty and economy are not what the majority in this state want. When a governor is inaugurated they want the treasury drawn on to the amount of $15,000 to pay for senseless display, and a plentiful flow of champagne. The constitution is to them a dead letter, and the efforts of the Democracy to enforce its provisions are laughed to scorn. Cast constitutions to the dogs! They are of no account, but the "tariff" must and shall be preserved. though it take every cent in the treasury to inaugurate the Beaver—Quay—Kemble—Magee ring.

Under the cry of "tariff" the labor vote has again been deceived, and by their help an honest economical administration has been repudiated, and the majority has declared in favor of the extravagance, the corruption, the disobedience of the fundamental law of the state, that has characterized the republican party in Pennsylvania for twenty years. This is what the majority have asked for, and we have no doubt they will get it.

NOT SO MUCH OF A DEFEAT.

The Republican press last week everywhere heralded the grand victory of the Republican party. Now that the smoke of the battle is over let us see how much of a victory it was. Beaver's majority last year was 43,516. The Democrats have majorities in 22 out of 38 states, which give electoral votes aggregating 219 against 182 for the Republicans. At present the indications are that Democrats will succeed Republican Senators from the States of New Jersey, Indiana, California and Virginia—a gain of four—making a tie in the Senate. There will be a majority of twenty-five in the next Congress.

It Makes a Difference.

Although a white Democrat was coldly murdered by a number of colored Republicans in Texas on election day no outcry has been raised by the bloody-shirt organs and even John Sherman has failed to denounce the outrage. In the light of events witnessed by the last generation this is singular, to say the least, but it may have been due to the fact that the tariff was being saved. It sometimes makes a difference, too, whose bread falls with the buttered side down.—Times.

Can't Afford to be a Judge.

A Bellefonte dispatch says: For some time past a vague rumor has been circulated that Hon. A. O. Furst, President Judge of this, the Twenty-sixth Judicial district, composed of the counties of Centre and Huntingdon, was about to resign his position. This rumor was confirmed recently by some of the Judge's intimate friends, who said that as soon as Governor-elect General James A. Beaver would be inaugurated Judge Furst would send in his resignation. His object in waiting until then is to ensure the appointment of a Republican as his successor. Mr. Furst was elected in the fall of 1884 over ex Judge Adam Hay, Democrat, and since he has only held the office about sixteen months his reason for resigning his position and resuming the practice of law is because there is more money in the latter. His salary as Judge is $4,000 and his law practice will yield him an income of from $8,000 to $10,000.

The Next U. S. Senate.

A POSSIBILITY OF THAT BODY BEING A TIE.

A Washington despatch says: It begins to look as if the United States Senate, after next March, will be so evenly divided as to render its political complexion a matter of some doubt. On the 3d of next March the terms of 16 Republicans and 9 Democratic Senators will expire. The Republicans whose terms will then end are: Messrs. Williams, (recently elected), of California; Hawley, of Connecticut; Harrison of Indiana; Hale, of Maine; Dawes, of Massachusetts; Conger, of Michigan; McMilan, of Minnesota; Van Wyck, of Nebraska; Sewell, of New Jersey; Miller, of New York; Sherman, of Ohio; Mitchell, of Pennsylvania; Aldrich, of Rhode Island; Edmunds, of Vermont; Mahone, of Virginia, and Sawyer, of Wisconsin. On the Democratic side the terms of Messrs. Gray, of Delaware; Jones, of Florida; Gorman, of Maryland; George, of Mississippi; Cockrell, of Missouri; Fair, of Nevada; Whitthrone, of Tennessee; Maxey, of Texas, and Camden, of West Virginia, will end.

Of the 16 Republicans who will retire, 12 will certainly be succeeded by men of the same party. Messrs. Sherman, Aldrich and Edmunds have been re-elected, and the Legislatures of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin are Republican. The Democrats lose one of the nine whose terms expire—Fair of Nevada—and are secure in the remainder. So that if the Legislatures of California, Indiana and New Jersey prove to be Democratic, the result of the change in the Senate, after the 3d of March, will be a net loss of three to the Republicans, a Democrat having been chosen to succeed Mahone from Virginia. The present Senate stands 41 Republicans, 34 Democrats and 1 Readjuster (Riddleberger).

But Senator Van Wyck comes back from Nebraska as a people's representative. He made his fight before the whole people, and won on an issue of opposition to corporations. Daring his present term, he has not hesitated on occasions to antagonize his party, and, under the conditions of his re-election, he may be more independent still. Leaving Van Wyck and Riddleberger out of the count, the next Senate will stand—provided the Democrats secure the three doubtful States mentioned—37 Republicans, 37 Democrats. Thus Messrs. Van Wyck and Riddleberger would hold the balance of power.

In connection with this probable situation, it is a fact worth mentioning that both Van Wyck and Riddleberger have given evidence of a kindly feeling for the administration. In the event of any conflict between the executive and the Senate, the two votes from Nebraska and Virginia would determine the issue. Van Wyck and Riddleberger would have it in their power, by co-operation with the Democrats, to organize the Senate, or, should Van Wyck vote with the Republicans and Riddleberger with the Democrats on the question of organization, there would be a tie, and there is no Vice-President to throw the deciding vote.

WASHINGTON LETTER

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9, 1886.

The recent elections have caused great surprise in political circles in Washington. It will be necessary to go back to the year 1874 to find anything comparable in interest to the upheaval in Congressional districts in many of the states this year. The control of the fiftieth Congress should have been secured by the party opposed to the administration, according to the law of political forces, and following the almost unbroken line of precedent in our political history. But the fact is that the Democrats in spite of losses sufficient to have given the Republicans the majority, have yet made gains in such unlooked for places as to retain control of the House.

The orderly and peaceful manner too in which the elections were conducted in the Southern States, with here and there Republican gains in Congress men in that section, ought to bury forever the last tattered remnant of the bloody shirt. Not a single complaint of intimidation or violence has come from any district and Messrs. Blaine's and Sherman's occupation is consequently gone.

Politicians here are still talking about the result of elections, and it is interesting to hear their various comments. They all agree that politics are uncertain. Some attribute Democratic losses to the fact that Democrats have not enough offices under the Administration, while others hold that if they had gotten fewer offices they would have elected more Congressmen. This last idea is upon the ground that it is impossible to dispense patronage to the satisfaction of everybody. The only way to be without enemies is to be without power. The man who has no favors to give makes no enemies; but he cannot bestow patronage on the few without making enemies of the many who expect and are disappointed.

Another common explanation of the apathy among Democratic voters is that they thought they had so sure a thing of it that they abstained from voting. The latter is Speaker Carlisle's opinion with regard to his own case. He says he has frequently warned his constituents that they would waken up some fine morning and find some one else elected to Congress in his place all on account of their staying away from the polls. "They seem to think," he added, "that I am sure to be elected whether anybody votes for me or not." It must be gratifying to the Speaker to know of the sentiments expressed by Republicans as well as Democrats when it was believed that he had been defeated. Even ultra Republicans here acknowledged that his loss to Congress would be a national calamity. He is such a broad, high-minded statesman that his political enemies cannot fail to respect and revere him as an examplar. While he is a straight out consistent party man, he deals honestly and fairly with his opponents and all they have ever dared to charge against him was the crime of being a Democrat.

Although a speaker for the fiftieth Congress will not be chosen for more than a year, the canvass for it will actively begin at the approaching session and consequently it is a subject of immediate interest. As the Democrats will have a safe working majority in that Congress it is certain, Tom Reed the Republican leader from Maine, will not name its committees as was predicted before the official counts came in.

Amid their losses the friends of "Free Trade" take some consolation from the fact that one of the most eminent of all the revenue reformers has received an endorsement at the hands of the people of New York of which any man has reason to feel proud. It is to be regretted that such a man as Abram Hewitt should be lost to the House of Representatives. He was especially distinguished for his clear and practical views and for his readiness to accept reasonable concessions from opponents.

Mr. Hewitt will not resign his seat in Congress until some time in Jan., and he hopes even before that time to accomplish something towards much needed legislation. The result of the election in New York, he says, imposes upon the Democratic party to talk up the subject of labor grievances and inaugurate such reforms as will relieve the working people of the unjust burdens that result from reduction in their earnings. He proposes to do all he can to bring about an amelioration of these evils, before he resigns. It is a large contract for him to undertake in a little less than a month, but if Mr. Hewitt can sow some healthy seed where it will take root and induce Congress to deal with the labor question without allowing the methods of the Demagogue to prevail in what it does, he will have done excellent work.

Harvard College celebrated its 250th birthday this week, with appropriate ceremonies. President and Mrs. Cleveland were in attendance.

Under a Democratic Administration.

The following dispatches from different points are a few of the evidences of returning prosperity under Democratic rule:

DANVILLE, Pa., Nov. 7.—Mr. Cox, of Reading, President of the Montour Iron and Steel Co., formerly known as the Waterman & Beaver works, of this place, came here last Thursday morning and gave orders that the puddling furnaces should be arranged to start immediately. They will give employment to about 300 men. The greater part of the works have been idle for about four years, though the company has been considering the advisability of starting up for the production of muck, bar and skelp iron. The wages of the puddlers have been voluntarily advanced from $3.50 per ton to $3.75, and those of the other men in proportion throughout the mill.

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Clare Furnace Co., at Sharpsville, has commenced building a large furnace at that place. The new shaft, when completed, will have a capacity of 150 tons daily. and will be the largest in the Shenango Valley.

READING, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Maiden Creek Iron Co., at Blandon, has increased its puddlers wages from $3.50 to $3.85 per ton and advanced all other employes 7 per cent. One hundred men are affected.

CARLISLE, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Carlisle Manufacturing Co. has just received two more large contracts for cars, which will keep their 300 men employed all the Winter. They expect several other contracts.

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., Nov. 7.—At Silverbrook has just been completed the largest and most finely equipped breaker in the coal region. There is an immense deposit of excellent coal in the vicinity. Operations will be begun the coming week. One hundred houses have been erected for the miners and within two years a good sized town will be found there.

We have been using one of the Champion lamps, manufactured by A. J. Wiedener, 36 South Second street, Philadelphia, and find it to meet every requirement as advertised. It gives more light than several gas jets, produces a steady flame, and is easily extinguished without blowing the light. The lamps are manufactured in all styles, from the stand lamp to the most expensive chandeliers.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club Concert Company of Boston will appear at the Opera House on Friday evening Nov. 19th. This company is of the kind that seldom visits country towns, and our people will have an opportunity to listen to a higher grade of music than is often afforded them. The musicians are artists of first ability, and the press assures us that their work is thoroughly pleasing. Secure seats at Dentler's.

The Grange Hall, on the third floor of the Farmers' Produce Exchange building, in this place, was formally dedicated on Friday afternoon of last week. McTimer Whitehead, of New Jersey, delivered an interesting address to a large number of members of the Grange and visitors. In the evening an entertainment was given by the young members of the Grange. The hall was well filled and all delighted with the progamme.

The advertising wagon of A. C. Yates & Co., was on our streets Friday of last week. Mr. J. K. Keller, the agent, has been on the road with the team for two years and covers a large territory. He distributes cards, pocket books, pocket slates, &c. The firm of A. C. Yates & Co. is one of the largest ready-made clothing houses in Philadelphia. Their trade not only encompasses Pennsylvania, but reaches out into New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the Virginias.

The variety entertainment that was announced for Saturday night did not take place. Sparring, singing, dancing, &c., were on the programme, but there was no audience, and so the curtain did not go up. Late in the evening one of the party became hilarious and got into a fight at corner of Main and Centre, with some others of the troupe, and Constable Woodward put him in the lock-up until he cooled off. He was liberated on paying the fine, and left town on the first train.

Miss Laura Pursel died at the house of Zebulon Shultz, on Fifth street, Saturday morning, of typhoid fever. She was first taken with malarial fever, which afterward developed into typhoid. Miss Pursel's home was near Iola, this county. She came to Bloomsburg about eleven years ago as servant girl and has been in this section ever since. During the latter part of her illness her father came down and remained with her until her death, when the body was conveyed to Millville for interment. She was about 30 years of age.

Our Daily Bread.

Heavy and sour bread or biscuit have a vast influence through the digestive organs upon the measure of health we enjoy. How important to our present happiness and future usefulness the blessing of good health and a sound constitution are, we can only realize when we have lost them, and when it is too late to repair the damage. And yet, notwithstanding these facts thousands of people daily jeopardize not only their health, but their lives, and the healths and lives of others, by using articles in the preparation of their food the purity and healthfulness of which they know nothing. Perhaps a few cents may have been saved, or it may have been more convenient to obtain the articles used, and the housekeeper takes the responsibility and possibly will never know the mischief that has been wrought. Paterfamilias may have spells of headache, Johnny may have lost his appetite, Susie may look pale; if so, the true cause is rarely suspected. The weather, the lack of outdoor air, or some other cause, is given, and the unwhole some poisonous system of adulterated food goes on. Next to the flour, which should be made of good, sound wheat and not ground too fine, the yeast or baking powder, which furnishes the rising properties, is of the greatest importance, and of the two we prefer baking powder, and always use the Royal, as we thereby retain the original properties of the wheat, no fermentation taking place. The action of the Royal Baking Powder upon the dough is simply to swell it and form little cells through every part. These cells are filled with carbonic acid gas, which passes off during the process of baking.

The Royal is made from pure grape acid and it is the action of this acid upon highly carbonized bicarbonate of soda that generates the gas alluded to; and these ingredients are so pure and so perfectly fitted tested and adapted to each other, that the action is mild and permanent, and is continued during the whole time of baking, and no residue of poisonous ingredients remains to undermine the health, no heavy biscuits, no sour bread, but if directions are followed, every article prepared with the Royal Baking Powder will be found sweet and wholesome.

The Chautauqua circle will meet at the residence of Mrs. John on Main street, Monday evening Nov. 15th. An interesting progam has been prepared for the occasion.

Rev. L. Zahner's new church at Omaha was not completed at the expected time, and will not be ready for occupancy for several weeks. He and his family reached Omaha safely, and until the church is opened he has put himself in the hands of the Bishop to preach wherever he may be sent.

A young man named Wm. Bryan was badly burned at Neal's furnace last week. The iron in running to the moulds passed over a cold water pipe, and melted off the pipe; the water escaped into the hot iron, and caused it to scatter in all directions. Some of the iron ignited the young man's clothing. He was considerably burned before the fire was extinguished. At present he is doing well and hopes are entertained of his entire recovery.

In counting the vote last week it appeared that C. B. Murphy had received 213 votes in Benton instead of C. G. Murphy. The tickets as voted were printed correctly, and the change of the initial was a mistake in the clerks of the election board who made up the returns. As it made no difference in the result the court decided to let the vote stand as returned, rather than put the county to the expense of sending for the board to correct the error.

If there was a case of cruelty to animals one was seen at corner of Third and Centre streets Saturday afternoon of last week. A man was driving down Third street with horse and truck wagon; he was carrying an umbrella to shield himself from the driving rain. As he was about to cross at the corner of Centre his umbrella was blown from his hands and driven in front of the horse. The horse became frightened and would not pass while the umbrella lay there broken by the wind and beating rain. The driver began beating the horse. Several times he was remonstrated with by people near by, but he continued his rude work until the horse ran against the gas lamp post and broke the lamp; then he walked out, picked up his umbrella, and drove on without any trouble. He will have a new lamp to buy; but this will hardly suffice for such fool-hardy work. If the proper officers would have arrested him and imposed a heavy fine it would have been just what he deserved.

Quite an excitement was created on Main street last Saturday morning by the loud screams of a woman and little girl. They were in the Poor house wagon, and Superintendent McBride drove the team while Constable Woodward held the woman's hands. She is the wife of Geo. Dodson who does not live with her, and it was reported to Officer Woodward that she was living in an old building in Rabbtown without food or proper clothing and that she abused her child. An order of relief was taken out but before they went for her she got on a canal boat and went to Berwick. She was sent back from there by the authorities and on Saturday morning Superintendant McBride and Poor Director Klein went after her with the wagon, but she made such an outcry coming up Market street that they let her get out. Finding that she was about to leave town again, the services of Constable Woodward were secured, and she was taken to the poor house by force. It seemed like harsh treatment, but under the circumstances nothing better could be done, for if left to herself she would have wandered off and become a charge on some other district which would have sent her back here with a big bill of costs.

Teachers' Institute.

The next annual session of the Columbia county Teachers' Institute will be held at Bloomsburg during the week commencing, Monday Dec. 20, 1886. The following distinguished instructors and lecturers have been engaged: Prof. Neff of Phila., Miss McClintock, Meadville, Pa., Miss Ross, Chicago, Col. Bain. Ky., Col. Conwell, Phila, Dr. J. M. Buckley, New York city, Miss E. B. Guie, Prof. Clark, Prof. Noetling, Dr. Higbee and Dr. Waller. The Bloomsburg Choral Society will furnish music for the day and evening sessions.

Council Proceedings.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was held Friday evening, President Zarr and Messrs. Sterner, Rosenstock, Sterling, Sharpless and Clark, members, being present. A committee from the Rosemont Cemetery Co. appeared, soliciting the Council to join with them in putting down a branch sewer, to extend from the main in Market street, up first to Centre and in the event such arrangement could not be effected, then they desired permission to lay pipe to said sewer in Market street of sufficient size to drain the waste water from the fountain which they propose to erect. The following resolution was offered and on motion agreed to:

Resolved, That the Council grant the Cemetery Co. the privilege of laying a branch sewer on First street, from Market to Centre, and to make connection with the main sewer gratis, and to receive the tappage fees from any of the property owners along said branch who may desire to connect, the same to be laid under the direction of the Supt. of Sewers, without any expense to the town.

Nominations for tax collector for 1886 being declared in order, M. C. Woodward was nominated and unanimously elected.

A petition was presented, signed by thirty-four citizens, praying the town to construct a crossing on Second street opposite the post-office. The prayer of the petitioners was not granted.

On motion the town solicitor was ordered to notify the D. L. & W. R. R. Co. that for the safety of the public said Co. should station a watchman at their crossing on East street or construct proper gates to be closed during the passing of trains over said street.

The Town Solicitor appeared and advised the council against the passage of the ordinance proposed by the merchants who presented their petition at the meeting of Aug. 6th last, holding that council had no authority to pass such ordinance, as there is already a law of the state providing for the punishment of hawking and peddling. Accordingly on motion it was agreed to decline action on said petition.

On motion the commissioner of highways was directed to put up guard rails along the dangerous parts of the Light Street road, and the road along the bank of Fishing Creek.

The following bills were approved:

Commissioner of highways	$32 37
Sundry persons labor on highways	80 87
Sundry persons hauling on highways	19 30
J. R. Schuyler, hardware	7 90
George Zeigler, building stone	1 92

Some timely hints about fur garments.

First: Some hundreds or thousands of you have your furs in storage here. When you want them got out, please drop us a line a day beforehand.

Second: Now and then a woman has a real desire to see how furs are cut and worked and sewed into garments. Once we invited you to visit the fur work-room. That proved too great a tax. We had to withdraw the invitation. But, if one really has occasion to go to the work-room and will bear the unpleasant smells for the sake of the information, we are glad to take her up. It is on the fourth floor of 1301 Chestnut, next the roof. There are forty men and women, machines and hand-work, steaming and stewing till ten o'clock at night. Ventilation enough to carry off the smells is out of the question. The higher up you go in this building the denser the population.

The most useful garments are coats, seal coats. We say this with due regard to the fashion. It is not a mere practical statement Nine out of ten buy coats. Coat styles are two—no trimming on either: The old straight front with wider skirt than formerly, rolling collar which buttons close in the neck on occasion; the English style, which is snug all over, close in the body, close in the collar. Both are 36 to 46 inches long. $125 to $250.

For your better understanding of what we are doing in furs all through we ought to say this: We use more skins for a coat than furriers commonly use. There are two ways of making a coat aside from choosing the skins. One is to cut them economically; the other is to cut them extravagantly. One results in a coat of varying fur; the other is uniform all over. Of course we make what you want us to make; and we make it as you want us to make it. But, in the absence of special agreement the other way, we make our furs with a generosity rare among furriers. Nobody knows how much this means but a furrier. Nobody sees the whole effect on a garment. Indeed the effect may be in the skin and not in the fur at all—invisible. Fur work is full of chances to do or not do. It is very largely a matter of confidence. Nobody not an expert can judge it even approximately. We do not ask you to judge it. That would be a pretence that you could. We make it such that you can in part. Beyond what you see in our work it is such as you see on the surface. That is what we mean when we say: It is done upon honor all through.

Seal walking-jackets, perfectly plain, not a bit of decoration of any sort, not even a cuff or a button in sight, close-fitting, small sleeves, snug standing collar, 24 to 26 inches long—there is not much of it, but what there is must be the finest of fur—$125.

Long seal dolmans, ulsters and newmarkets, trimmed with black or natural beaver, black lynx, black marten or monkey, are worn but little. We keep a sample garment of frequent styles and only make to order. $150 to $350; more for extreme sizes.

Visites and other wraps are seal or persianer, which latter means a certain sort of lamb-skin that comes to us from Russia—we presume it is Persian—a very good skin with pretty curly black short hair. The shapes are many and various; the trimming, natural beaver and black, black lynx, black marten and balls and drops and fringes of seal. $100 to $225. No tails on fine fur garments.

Fur-lined circulars, same as heretofore, except they have dropped to the rôle of carriage-wraps. They are very plain. Sicilian silk with hare collar and edge down front and lined with hemster, squirrel, squirrel-back and mink sable; $20 to $100. Now and then a raglan, $35 to $175.

We stop at fur wraps today.

A German armure cut into half-inch stripes by two-thread lines of two-color silk; a $1.25 stuff for $1; 42-inch.

A German zig-zag twill cut into half-inch squares by color stripes of silk and wool; resembling the last but softer; a $1.25 stuff for $1; 42-inch.

American serge cut into half-inch stripes by single threads of bright color; a 60c stuff for 50c; yard-wide.

American pin-check cloth, both pin-check and mixture, a little way off the checks become mixtures, 52-inch; a $1 stuff for 75c.

American plaid over pin-checks, 52-inch; a $1 stuff for 75c.

Frowsy diagonal, 48-inch; a $1.25 stuff for 75c.

Diagonal frowsier still; gray, covered with tangle of silver hairs; a $1 stuff for 60c; 52-inch.

Check and not check, obscure, coarse texture, frowsy with golden hairs; a $1 stuff for 60c; 54-inch.

Must stop somewhere.

N. W. Ayer & Son's American Newspaper Annual for 1886 is one of the most complete works of the kind ever published. It contains a carefully prepared list of all newspapers and periodicals in the United States and Canada, arranged by States in geographical sections, and by towns in alphabetical order, giving the name of the papers, the issue, general characteristics, year of establishment, size, circulation, and advertising rates for ten lines one month. Also complete lists of all the religious or agricultural periodicals, of medical, commercial, scientific, educational, or any other of the class publications, as well as all publications printed in foreign languages.

It contains besides a vast amount of general and statistical information of practical value to almost every business man, and is, in its line, as deserving a place on desk or in library as Webster's dictionary or a first-class encyclopædia.

Jacoby sells a solid quart of oysters for 30c. that weighs 2¼ lbs.

Iron Roofs.

Experience demonstrates that the best results are given by iron laid in sheets, with the joints so constructed as to allow for expansion and contraction, and fastened by a device which avoids nailing or riveting through the sheets. This is the kind of roofing made by the Pittston Iron Roofing Co., who have advertised in these columns for some months. They make several styles, corrugated and plain, plain or calamined, the latter being similar in appearance to galvanized iron. It is said that these roofs are better and cheaper than tin, shingles or slate, and they can be laid by ordinary mechanics. The sheets are also used for siding. They are manufactured in large quantities and shipped to all parts of the country, being extensively used on coal breakers, mills and other large buildings, as well as on stores, dwellings, barns, sheds, etc. In and about Pittston they are used on every hand. Their popularity at home is a strong testimonial to their excellence.

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Stimpson, Rogers Prairie, Tex.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold, which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa.

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my Lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

Only a Step.

When catarrh has progressed to a certain extent, it is only a step to that terribly fatal disease, consumption. If you have catarrh, even slightly, it is a terrible mistake to allow it to continue its course unchecked. If you will only read, you will find conclusive reasons why you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, in the statements of many people who have been completely cured of this disease in even its most severe forms. BUSINESS NOTICES.

TO PRESERVE NATURAL FLOWERS.—Dip the flowers in melted paraffine, withdrawing them quickly. The liquid should be only just hot enough to maintain its fluidity and the flowers should be dipped one at a time, held by the stocks and moved about for an instant to get rid of air bubbles. Fresh cut flowers, free from moisture, make excellent specimens in this way. If you would preserve your health and invigorate your entire system use Perrine's Pure Barley Malt Whiskey. Dangerous Drugs.

HOW TO CONTROL EFFECTUALLY ALL SUCH HORRIBLE HABITS.

Rochester, N. Y., Post-Express.

A gentleman who has spent the summer abroad, said to our reporter, that the thing that impressed him most of all was the number of holidays one encounters abroad and the little anxiety the people display in the conduct of business affairs. "Men boast here," he said, "that they work for years without a day off; in Europe that would be considered a crime."

Mr. H. H Warner, who was present at the time, said, "This is the first summer in years that I have not spent on the water. Been too busy.

"Then, I suppose you have been advertising extensively?"

"Not at all. We have always heretofore closed our laboratory during July, August and September, but this summer we have kept it running day and night to supply the demand, which has been three times greater than ever before in our history at this season."

"How do you account for this?

"The increase has come from the universal recognition of the excellence of our preparations. We have been nearly ten years before the public and the sales are constantly increasing while our newspaper advertising is constantly diminishing. Why, high scientific and medical authorities, now publicly concede that our Warner's safe cure is the only scientific specific for kidney and liver diseases and for all the many diseases caused by them."

"Have you evidence of this?"

"Abundance! Only a few weeks ago Dr. J. L. Stephens, of Lebanon, Ohio a specialist for narcotic, etc. habits told me that a number of eminent scientific medical men had been experimenting for years, testing and analyzing all known remedies for the kidneys and liver, for, as you may be aware, the excessive use of all narcotics and stimulants destroys those organs, and until they can be restored to health the habits cannot be broken up! Among the investigators were such men as J. M. Hall, M. D., President of the State Board of Health of Iowa, and Alexander Neil, M. D., Professor of Surgery in the college of Physicians and Surgeons and president of the Academy of Medicine at Columbus, who after exhaustive inquiry, reported that there was no remedy known to schools or to scientific inquiry equal to Warner's safe cure!"

"Are many persons addicted to the use of deadly drugs?"

"There are forty millions of people in the world who use opium alone, and there are many hundreds of thousands in this country who are victims of morphine, opium quinine and cocaine. They think they have no such habit about them—so many people are unconscious victims of these habits. They have pains and symptoms of what they call malaria and other diseases, when in reality it is the demand in the system for these terrible drugs, a demand that is caused largely by physicians' prescriptions which contain so many dangerous drugs, and strong spirits, and one that must be answered or silenced in the kidneys and liver by what Dr. Stephens says is the only kidney and liver specific. He also says that moderate opium and other drug eaters, if they sustain the kidney and liver vigor with that great remedy, can keep up these habits in moderation."

"Well does not this discovery give you a new revelation of the power of safe cure?"

"No, sir; for years I have tried to convince the public that nearly all the diseases of the human system originate in some disorder of the kidneys or liver, and hence I have logically declared that if our specific were used, over ninety per cent. of these ailments would disappear. The liver and kidneys seem to absorb these poisons from the blood and become depraved and diseased."

"When these eminent authorities thus publicly admit that there is no remedy like ours to enable the kidneys and liver to throw off the frightful effects of all deadly drugs and excessive use of stimulants it is an admission of its power as great as any one could desire; for if through its influence alone the opium, morphine, quinine, cocaine and liquor habits can be overcome, what higher testimonial of its specific power could be asked for?"

"You really believe then, Mr. Warner, that the majority of diseases come from kidney and liver complaints?"

"I do! When you see a person moping and groveling about half dead and half alive, year after year, you may surely put him down as having some kidney and liver trouble."

"The other day I was talking with Dr. Fowler, the eminent oculist of this city, who said that half the patients who came to him for eye treatment were affected by advanced kidney disease. Now many people wonder why in middle life their eye sight becomes so poor. A thorough course of treatment with Warner's safe cure is what they need more than a pair of eye glasses. The kidney poison in the blood always attacks the weakest part of the body; with some it affects the eyes; with others the head; with others the stomach or the lungs, or rheumatic disorder follows and neuralgia tears them to pieces, or they lose the powers of taste, smell or become impotent in other functions of the body. What man would not give his all to have the vigor of youth at command?"

"The intelligent physician knows that these complaints are but symptoms they are not the disorder, and they are symptoms not of disease of the head, the eye or stomach, or of virility, necessarily, but of the kidney poison in the blood and they may prevail and no pain occur in the kidneys."

It is not strange that the enthusiasm which Mr. Warner displays in his appreciation of his own remedy, which restored him to health when the doctors said he could not live six months, should become infectious and that the entire world should pay tribute to its power. For as Mr. Warner says, the sales are constantly increasing, while the newspaper advertising is constantly diminishing. This speaks volumes in praise of the extraordinary merits of his preparations.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Patti begins her concerts in New York on Nov. 18.

Mme. Nilsson is seriously ill with bronchitis in London, and her concert tour has been abandoned.

Mme. Patti is going to sing five times before she leaves for America—five times for the trifle of £5,000.

A new opera, "Fausta," by Prince Bandini, an Italian composer, has been produced with great success at Milan.

It is stated that Jenny Lind-Goldschmidt's daughter will shortly be heard from concert platforms in the United States.

Lonclais is said to be an amateur musical composer, and he has written a waltz which will be introduced in one of the operas to be given by his company.

Gilbert and Sullivan's new opera will be ready for production Christmas week. It will be heard at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, in January next.

PERSONAL.

Bismarck's income is over $1,000,000 a year.

Ex-President Arthur is worth about $100,000.

"Max O'Rell" will lecture in this country next year.

Sunset Cox remarks that congress is not as big as it used to be.

Mr. Parnell will pass part of the winter in southern France and Italy.

President Cleveland has contributed $100 for the sufferers at Sabine Pass.

Secretary Lamar is one of the happiest men in Washington. He is going to be married.

Fred Douglass will make a tour of western Europe, visiting Paris, Rome, Naples and Vienna.

Twenty-four-year-old Augustus Jessup, with an income of over $60,000, is the richest young man in Philadelphia.

President Cleveland is getting uncomfortably fat. He, with Secretary Manning, will try the massage treatment.

The sultan of Morocco has 6,000 wives, "they say." It is to be hoped that his mothers-in-law are not so numerous.

Adam Rheinman, of Garfield, Ills., received a shot in the late war and carried the bullet in his body for over twenty years.

Andrew Carnegie is building a house on the summit of the Alleghanies near Cresson Springs which will cost $1,000,000.

Harry Garfield, the eldest son of the late President Garfield, is soon to marry his cousin, Miss Mason, of Cleveland, O.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay says he would not object to being governor of Kentucky if the Kentucky people didn't object to him.

"Mr. Gladstone," says his wife, "remains poor and will die poor." He feels severely the loss of his yearly salary of £5,000 as premier.

John Russell Young, who has just returned from Europe, says that Lord Randolph Churchill is a much brainier man than his enemies give him credit for.

A hotel on the Isle of Wight, much frequented by clergymen, is kept by a man appropriately named Saint. The liquors in the establishment are said to be unusually bad.

Mr. Labouchere says Prince Henry of Battenburg's finances are in a deplorable condition. He now has to draw on his wife whenever he wants to buy a package of cigarettes.

Senator Cameron has been building a house in Washington for his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sherman. It is a peculiar color, nearly black, and looks as if the owner intended to live in perpetual mourning.

When Whitelaw Reid was a newspaper correspondent in the army twenty years ago, he was spoken of by Gen. Sherman as "an unreliable little cuss." Now he has bought Henry Villard's $1,000,000 residence for $400,000.

Pat Sheedy is reported as saying that since he has stopped drinking, John L. Sullivan has got "rather niggerish." He wears patent leather shoes, high collars, and very loud neckties. He appeared recently with a collar quite as high as any that are worn by negro minstrels on the stage.

George B. Thayer, son of ex-Senator Thayer, of Connecticut, who started from Vernon, Conn., on April 10, on a bicycling trip, has just returned, after finishing 4,224 miles on his wheel. He went as far as the Pacific coast, made about sixty miles a day, had no adventures and spent but $275.

MEN AND WOMEN OF LETTERS.

Miss Kate Field will winter south.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett will stay in Boston until Christmas.

Herbert Spencer will winter in Brighton. His condition is not improved.

George Francis Train, the Madison square poet, says he is going to live 200 years.

Miss Blanche Willis Howard, the writer, will pass the coming winter in Europe.

Mrs. Arthur Stannard (John Strange Winter) is reading selections from her own works in public.

The next of Balzac's novels to appear in the series of translations will be "Le Medecin de Campagne."

William D. Howells is preparing an autobiography of his boyhood for The Youth's Companion.

Mrs. Croley (Jennie June) denies the rumor that she has retired from the editorship of Demorest's Monthly.

Mrs. Margaret Deland, the Boston poetess, is going to publish a new volume of verses under title of "An Old Garden."

Mme. Foli, the wife of the singer, has written a novel entitled "Monte Carlo." Her book is said to be inspired by her own experience.

The "Eminent Women Series" will include a sketch of Mrs. Siddons by Mrs. Kennard and a biography of Mme. de Stael by Miss Bella Hardy.

Mrs. Oliphant and T. B. Aldrich have wrought conjointly in producing "The Second Son," a novel that is to come out in The Atlantic during 1887.

Alphonse Daudet has been going through a cure at La Malon and at the same time has been busy with another story of Parisian life entitled "L'Immortelle."

M. Taine, who is at a hydropathic institution at Geneva, is regaining his strength and hopes to be able to complete another volume of his "French Revolution" this winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is going to London for the winter with her daughter. She will continue her work on the "Woman's Version of the Bible," on which she has been engaged for some time.

Thomas Bailey Aldrich protests against the name Dollar street, on which his house is located in Ponkapog. "There are," he says, "at least 150 scents in it, and it should be named Dollar and a Half street."

Homer Greene, the poet lawyer of Honesdale, whose "What My Lover Said" was attributed to Horace Greeley for several years, has won the $1,500 prize offered by Youth's Companion for the best serial story.

Gen. Lew Wallace has branched out into religious literature, and is announced to contribute to a coming number of Harper's a sketch of the "Baythood of Christ," which, it is said, will be accompanied by a full page cartoon by Du Maurier.

Mark Twain is a physical study. He seems to grow nervous with the advance of years and can't keep still a minute. He wears a No. 8 hat, which he has to have made to order, and his features are in proportion to the size of his head. He never stops at the same hotel twice because he thinks he gets treated better by changing about.

Julian Hawthorne has interviewed James Russell Lowell for a big New York paper. The interviewer, in the course of his story, remarks incidentally that he used to (ostensibly) study with the author of the Hosea Bigelow papers, but that more time was given to pipes and talk than books. In talking to his former student Lowell commended the nobility, decried the literature and art and waxed enthusiastic over the society of England.

JOURNALS AND JOURNALISTS.

Labouchere, the editor of The London Truth, is 55 years of age. He has plenty of money, edits for amusement, and smokes cigarettes incessantly.

John R. McLean, the editor of The Cincinnati Enquirer, is fitting up his new house in Washington in great style, and intends to have in it the finest private library in the city. He is now in New York looking up art matters, with a view of purchasing.

Mr. Howells has prepared for a future number of The Youth's Companion an autobiographic fragment which promises to be very interesting. It records his boyish experiences in a western log cabin and in the printing office in which he began his working life.

Mr. Edmund Yates still personally conducts The World (London), but is said to contribute little to its pages. He lives at Brighton and seldom visits the metropolis. Mr. A. M. Bromley, the defender of Arabi Pacha, is the leading spirit of The World. He writes about the "Celebrities at Home."

Ex-Minister Lowell says he was as much surprised as the boy who "didn't know it was loaded" when he saw his conversation with Julian Hawthorne on England reported in a big New York paper, and claims that Hawthorne violated a friendly confidence. Besides, he says, he didn't say all the things "the reporter" says he did. Hawthorne rejoins to the effect that he thought Lowell knew he was being interviewed, and adds that he is sorry if he misreported his host's language.

A London correspondent once asked the proprietor of The Telegraph, which has the largest circulation in London, why his paper had no American correspondent, but relied solely on Reuter's dispatches. He replied: "My dear sir, there is so little interest in American affairs here that if for the next six months we should throw away every bit of Reuter's American matter but the market reports I am sure we should never once during that time receive a complaint from a subscriber."

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Esterbrook wants to play with the Mets next year.

Savannah is raising $10,000 for the Southern league team of 1887.

Watkins has signed a contract to manage the Detroit team again in 1887.

The Mets have signed Ryan, who pitched for the Boston Blues during the past season.

The Chicago Club has signed Mark Baldwin, late of the Duluth club, champions of the Northwestern league.

A Gulf league is talked of, with teams in Selma, Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Columbus and Birmingham.

Should Poorman decide not to sign with Boston, which is likely, he will probably be found with the Louisvilles next season.

During the season just closed the American association clubs signed 164 men and released 44, the league 168 men and released 35.

The New York club has already more pitchers than it ever had before. Welch, Keefe, Tiernan, George and Mattimore are among the number.

Harkins, the pitcher of the Holy Cross college team, of Boston, is credited with having thrown a ball the remarkable distance of 129 yards 8 inches on Oct. 13.

The salary limit rule will probably be abolished next season. It was so flagrantly disregarded this year by the different managers as to be almost a nullity.

Owing to the failure of the Philadelphia club to keep its engagements with the Athletics, the gold medals which were to be given to the members of the champion team will not be distributed until the close of the spring series.

Baldwin was the best winning pitcher. He won 42 out of 55 games. Stemmyer won 22 out of 41, including one tie game, and Radbourn won 27 out of 57. Welch, of New York, won 33 and lost 22. Shaw, of Washington, won 13 and lost 39 games during the season.

New York is still skirmishing for young players.

Kilroy will probably go to California with the Louisville club.

Cincinnati is to play exhibition games with Chicago, Detroit and Kansas City.

Irwin and Andrews have agreed to play with the Phillies next season.

Ramsey has been secured by Von der Ahe to pitch against the Chicago champions.

The Boston club has signed Morgan Murphy, catcher of the Boston New England league team.

It is said the reason Dalrymple has taken such a fall in his batting is because his eyesight is failing him.

After paying all the expenses of its big deals it is said Detroit will have $25,000 in its treasury at the close of the season.

The pavilion at the new Philadelphia grounds is being fast pushed to completion. It is safe to say it will be the finest stand of the kind in the country.

Some time ago the New York club proposed that the league season be extended, so that postponed games could be played off. About all the clubs were in favor of it except Detroit.

Boston has not reserved Tate or Dealey, St. Louis Crane, Chicago Moolic, Philadelphia Irwin or Andrews, Detroit White or Manning, New York Finley or Esterbrook, Washington Baker, Henry or Houck.

Boston has cleared $50,000 this season, New York $100,000, Detroit about $40,000 and Chicago $60,000. This will effectually silence those who heretofore have claimed that playing baseball is not a legitimate and honorable profession.—Rambler.

Chicago's California catcher, Hardie, will go back to California this winter and catch for a ball club called the Haverlys. Jerry Denny and Patsy Cahill, of the Marcons, and Tom Brown, the great batter and base runner of the Pittsburg, will play ball with California clubs this winter.

The secret is out. Von der Ahe is an old ball player. He was short stop of the old Grand avenue nine in St. Louis, and he is talking of getting the nine together again to play the Browns. In Von der Ahe's days no coaching was allowed, but it is said Chris used to howl: "Schwint, Challey, Schwint."—Philadelphia Press.

PUGILISTIC.

Billy McLean is proud of his pupil, Jack Lynch, and says he can whip any 120-pound man in the country.

Jack Burke is said to be training at Sancilito, and Jack Dempsey is fitting himself on Grand avenue, San Francisco, for their coming fight.

Again it is said that Ryan will fight Sullivan. In the same connection it may be mentioned that the usual prospect of war exists in Europe.—New York World.

There is said to be some little prospect of a fight between Sullivan and Cardiff, of Minneapolis. If a fight is arranged it will not be before Sullivan returns from the Pacific coast.

A match has been arranged between the middleweights John F. Clow, of Denver, Colo., and Peter J. Nolan, of Cincinnati, to fight to a finish, with hard gloves, for $2,000 a side.

John L. Sullivan and his pugilistic combination have left on their starring tour. The company includes Steve Taylor, Pete McCoy, George LaBlanche, "The Marine," Dan Murphy and Jim McGuen. Pat Sheedy has full charge. The show is billed first at Milwaukee, Stillwater, St. Paul and Minneapolis. From there they go to Leadville, Omaha and Salt Lake City, and will reach San Francisco about Nov. 16.

Billy Oliver, the backer of Tom Danforth, has just returned to this city. He doesn't think that Danforth had fair play in his fight with Warner. Before leaving Minneapolis he deposited $50 for a fight of twenty-one rounds between Tom Danforth and Tom Warren at any time that Warren may mention. Warren and Danforth have agreed to fight for the featherweight championship and $1,000 a side near this city.—New York Sun.

NOTES ON THE TURF.

Barnum has started in thirty-five races this year, won nineteen and $15,360.

The fifty or more trotting horses owned by the late Harrison Durkee will be sold at auction in New York on Nov. 3.

A big horse show is to be held in Chicago, at the Exposition building, on Nov. 8 to 19, under the auspices of the state board of agriculture.

The fastest trotting times of the season are: Harry Wilkes, 2.14½; Belle F., 2.15½; Guy Wilkes, 2.15½; Jerome Turner, 2.15½; Bonaie McGregor, 2.16; Oliver K., 2.16½.

Up to and including Sept. 27 the position of English jockeys from the opening of the season, on March 22, was: F. Archer, 139 wins in 424 mounts; C. Wood, 123 in 362; G. Barrett, 89 in 501; J. Watts, 76 in 355; F. Barrett, 64 in 396.

LIGHT AND AIRY.

A Kiss for a Blow.

I kissed her hand, and O the thrill
Is warm within my memory still!
It stirred the sources of my blood
That seemed to quench my heart's sad drought,
And woke emotions in a flood.
I kissed her hand. She slapped my mouth.
—Detroit Free Press.

On His Dignity.

Uncle Rastus—Kin yo' trus' me to er codfish dis mawnin, Mistah Sugarsand?

Grocer—Trust you to a codfish, Uncle Rastus? No, sir. You owe me now for a codfish you bought nine years ago. Why don't you ask me to give you a codfish?

Uncle Rastus (with dignity)—Kase I'se too proud ter beg, sah.—New York Sun.

Try It First.

Said a chap in an offhanded way,
To a damsel coquettish and gay,
"I wonder if I
Had the heart to apply
For a kiss, would I get it or nay?"

Then the maiden with cunning replied,
"Such requests should be always denied;
It is safest and best
To defer your request—
At least until after you've tried."
—Texas Siftings.

He Could Sleep.

Nat Goodwin relates that when he was barn-storming in the west he told a porter of a Denver hotel to rouse him at 5 in the morning in order that he might catch the train for Leadville, as otherwise he could not get there in time for the performance. "All right, sur," said the clerk, who was also the porter, "ye'll be woke." At 5 o'clock came a terrific pounding at his door. "Who's there?" yelled out Goodwin, as he jumped up. "Are yez the gintleman what wanted to be called at 5 o'clock?" "Yes—all right." "Well, go back to shleep again: the train's gone."

It Put Its Head in a Wheari.

There was once an English earl,
Who loved an American pearl,
When he found her "estate"
Was a house and back gate,
It frightened his hair out of curl.

A SWINDLER

does not refer possible purchasers to his victims. The Athlophoros Co. gladly refers sufferers from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous or sick headache, kidney and liver complaints to those who have been cured of these diseases by Athlophoros, and will furnish names and addresses of many such persons to those desiring them. Athlophoros is the only remedy for these diseases that can stand such a test.

A. L. Thomas, Cuba, N. Y., says: "My son, J. M. Thomas, had been suffering from rheumatism for several months. Athlophoros relieved him of the pain, and reduced the swelling of the joints, and the lameness entirely disappeared. I have seen those having neuralgia cured by taking one dose."

A. Beard, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled for some time with sciatica and rheumatism, brought on by working in a damp place. I could find no remedy in medicine I was using, until I tried a bottle of Athlophoros, which gave me immediate relief."

Mrs. Alfred Thurston, 42 North Main Street, Wilkesbarre, Pa., says: "I am not troubled with rheumatism now, since using Athlophoros. I believe, should it in any case fail to relieve and permanently cure, the cause would be that the directions were not faithfully followed."

J. J. Savitz, Nazareth, Pa., says: "I gave two bottles of Athlophoros to my sister, and she has entirely recovered. She was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism and St. Vitus' dance, and although we had two of the best doctors, she gradually grew worse. She would scream from pain night and day. I heartily recommend it.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney disease, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

Chick-chick-er-re-kee

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT.
ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR IT.

Prevents Roup, Prevents Gapes, Prevents Cholera, Prevents Egg-Eating, Prevents Laying Soft Eggs, Makes Hens Lay.

IT IS NO POWDER. IT IS NO MEDICINE.

It Sells for Five Cents Per Pound, in Boxes.

Chick-chick-er-re-kee (poultry food and preventive of disease for poultry), the great egg food, produces eggs prodigiously and is good for the health of the fowling. It is the first article of its kind ever Patented in the United States, Canada and England. Try it. It costs only five cents per pound. It is no powder. Chickens will eat it. That ought to convince you that it is good. If your Grocer, Druggist, Hardware or Country Storekeeper will not get it for you, send one dollar, and I will ship you a twenty-pound box by freight, or one hundred pounds for five dollars. A large box will cost you no more freight than a small box. Attend to your poultry. If you want to make a profit out of them, just the same as you attend to your land. Unless you manure your land it will not pay you. Just so with poultry; you must give them something besides feed. They must have material to answer for grinders, and material for the egg. If you feed Chick-chick-er-re-kee (egg food) every day you will never have any sick chickens, and your hens will lay eggs when otherwise they would not. You will never do without it after a fair trial. Do not pay twenty-five or fifty cents a pound for medicine to feed your poultry when you can get a better article from your storekeeper at five cents a pound. Don't be a clam; try it. D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night gasping for breath My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and herbs and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WONDERFUL CURE FOR ASTHMA AND CATARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES, so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date:

Oliver W. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I find the remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief."

E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kansas, writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and
